

Answers Mock Endterm (Finance Track)

This is the answer key to the mock endterm for the Finance MSc programme.

Note

The answers below are still being written, and will be published together with the questions. Until then, use the mock midterm answers.

MC Answers

One short paragraph per multiple-choice question: the correct option, and why the plausible distractors are wrong.

Open Answers

A complete worked answer per open question, stating the model, the identifying assumption, the computation, and the interpretation. A different route to the same conclusion earns the same marks, provided the assumptions and the interpretation are stated explicitly.
